

Cafe Newsletter

June 1, 2007

Quote of the month:

The summer night is like a perfection of thought. ~ Wallace Stevens

Welcome to the June Edition of Assyrian Cafe Newsletter. Another month gone by and one fun filled one ahead of us. With exciting things about to or already have hit the Assyrian Cafe website. With the beginning of summer having no mercy with Assyrians of America, Assyrian Cafe would like to brighten up their summer just a little bit more by adding wonderful treats such as the new forum look and of course many other wonderful surprises. So sit back and enjoy the rest of this newsletter.

WOW CAFE YOU LOOK WONDERFUL!

I'm sure all of you users have noticed the amazing new forums. I know some users were reluctant to use it at first, heck I was one of them. But I must say I've come to like the new forum and all the handy features with it. As Assyrian Guy kindly pointed, the forums have features such as flash signatures, video attachment, gender profiling and much much more. So on behalf of Assyrian Cafe we'd like to thank our friends from phpBB for the wonderful new bulletin board. All you users out there get posting!

GAME OVER!

As if the new games weren't as exciting enough, now we're getting more. Assyrian Cafe is going to further upgrade and add all sorts of new games to our arcade section; I say more power to them! Anyway why not, Bubbles can further make us look like complete losers. Well to be more precise, make Assyrian Guy look like a sore loser. Have no mercy bubbles.

MIRACLE?

As Hani kindly mentioned to us, Assyrians in the region of Syria have been brought to their attention a miracle some may call it. A young boy in a town in Syria has bared allegiance to the request of Mar Gewargis or St. George. Seen in a dream, St. George requested the little boy to go to the church and open up the doors where he will baptize a young boy. This miracle has left awe and wonders in the hearts and minds of many Christians around the world.

SCHOLARSHIP

The Assyrian Universal Alliance Foundation has offered students the opportunity to win a scholarship. Such a wonderful opportunity that all students should be considering. But for more information on this wonderful prospect click on the link below:

NEW ARTICLES

You guys have probably noticed the new article section of the website. Well the purpose of it is to give students or anybody willing to submit a paper, so others may learn and share opinions with one another. Two articles have kindly been posted by Assyrian Guy and hopefully many more are yet to come. So if you have anything you would like to share, please do so by emailing it to:

AssyrianCafe@gmail.com.

POLITICS OR CHURCH

Assyrian Guy has raised a very good question in the chit chat forums of the website. Should the church be involved in politics? It seemed as though users all had their 2 cents on the matter. Abella being not too straight forward and leaving some room for the imagination added "laaa" as an answer. It was quite evident that Atoreta_sydney felt the same way Abella did, but the forum took a sharp turn when Assyrian Guy stated that "I think if certain political factors will affect the church in any way, then it must stand up and protect its rights". But opposition was evident, when princ3ss strongly disagreed with Assyrian Guy's remark. Although a clear answer was not found, opinions were formulated.

VOTE [1] ASSYRIAN GUY

Recent polls in the "your votes count" forum have put forward a question to our Assyrian Cafe users asking them who better is at avoiding questions. Four candidates were running for the position, but a majority of the votes were given to the one and only person that could fit the shoes. Yep, you guys guessed it, its Assyrian Guy. I wanted to take the time, to congratulate Assyrian Guy; it must have taken a life long commitment to be that good at it. Good on ya champ.
