Quote of the month

Don't judge each day by the harvest you reap but by the seeds that you plant.

By: Robert Louis Stevenson

Welcome to yet another edition to the Assyrian Café newsletter. A lot has happened over the month in Assyrian Café. Make yourself comfortable and catch up on the month's events, gossip and major headlines.

KEEP OUT!

Ladies and gentlemen, the long awaited girls only and guys only forum has arrived. The girl's only forum is a place where the female users can go and just speak their minds, knowing that girls will only post, and vice versa with the guys. A cliché topic in the girl's forum that had most female users, vigorously typing away was the topic of clothing. Chicago-girl asked the female users "how long does it take u to find an outfit for a wedding, party etc?" Abella explains her procedure when it comes to purchasing an outfit and sadly the story doesn't end happily, better luck next time Abella! Over to the guy's forum, nothing much was really thrown around to be discussed by the guys, but one that comes across as interesting, which is "are u strict on ur lil sis".

A couple of reply's were posted, one being from Assyrian Guy, saying "No". Good on ya Assyrian Guy. Nothing else was posted in the Guy's forums, other then, backwards and forwards remarks from female users. You Assyrian Café users might want to check it out!

THE SWEAR JAR

Princ3ss in her recent attempt to liven up the forums asked frequent users of Assyrian Café "do you swear often". This coincidentally sparked an enormous amount of replies. One attention-grabbing remark was made by Abella and has given the occasional chuckle, was about the Google incident. As Abella recounted the story by posting "omg one day Simon came on with a bad remark about Google in msn I was like omg Simon why r u saying that he was like if u say something bad about Google in ur nick for 60 days (I think he said) they will give you $100 I was like ok so I wrote some bad things about Google everybody was like wat did Google do so I told them they were all laughing and then I told Simon he was like yea I was joking :(". Poor Abella, don't you worry we've been in your shoes once or twice before.

AROUND THE WORLD:

Finally a place we can call home sweet home

A recent request for an Assyrian province by Mr. Shakat Gabrail and Mr. Hannibal Travis to the Iraqi foreign minister was greeted with a warm smile. As previously announced, the Iraqi government gave the Assyrians the opportunity to claim an Assyrian province as they were recognized as the indigenous people of Iraq. The right was acted upon and with much gladness the request for an Assyrian province was granted by the Iraq, which was dated and signed and now merely waiting for further actions to be taken by the Congress resolution and other resolution. Our warm thanks go out to Mr. Shakat Gabrail and Mr. Hannibal Travis for their successful attempts to give the Assyrians of Iraq a place to call home sweet home.
