

Cafe Newsletter

1, September 2007

Quote of the month:

I learned just enough in school to figure out that everything is not all there is to know ~unknown

Welcome to the September edition of Assyrian Cafe newsletter. This month's edition of Assyrian Cafe will highlight events of what September has to offer for the Assyrian Cafe community. With so much already happening for our website such as the new look, many more services and surprises for the Assyrian Cafe community is just around the corner. Kick back and enjoy this edition of Assyrian Cafe newsletter.

BACK TO SCHOOL

Well, well, well for all you youngsters out there, this time of the year has dreadfully rolled around. Don't you worry, this year it won't be as boring, you'll have Assyrian Cafe to come home too everyday. So kiss those boring afternoon's good bye, because Assyrian Cafe is here to help. But in the mean while, you all better get ready for school; get all the essentials, pen, paper, folders etc. Remember, study hard and make us proud!

SHE'S GOT A NEW LOOK

The team here at Assyrian Cafe has yet again transformed this wonderful website into something much more spectacular. The new forums has got a new look. Thanks to Assyrian Guy, a.k.a Simon has installed the new "Milky Way" look for our forum for all us users to enjoy. Although there are no actual new features, the site is spectacular nonetheless. I would encourage all you Cafe users to check it out and familiarize yourself with the new look. If there are any questions about the new look, do not hesitate to email Assyrian Guy at assyriancafe@gmail.com

TO BE OR NOT TO BE?

A recent topic in the "your votes count" forum regarding the gay population was posted by Assyrian Guy. Assyrian Guy asked Assyrian Cafe users "is being gay a choice?" There was a variety of opinions posted which did show a diversity of opinions. Princ3ss believes that being gay isn't a choice, as did I, but Assyrian Guy believes that being gay is a lifestyle. Interesting view point, but I still disagree with his view point. Assyrian Cafe would love to read about your view point on the issue, so why don't you visit the "your votes count" forum and tell us what you think. Cheers!

SPREAD THE GOOD NEWS

I'm sure there isn't one Assyrian Cafe user that would speak ill of our community. What more could we ask for? A community filled with diversity, unity, love, compassion, and of course amazing personalities. I want to encourage people to let others know about us. Encourage people on your msn to visit the site, ask them to sign up. The more the merrier that's what I always say. Assyrian Cafe would love to meet lots and lots of new names we could add to our already wonderful community. Our website grows and grows as each day rolls by, and the more helping hands the better it is for all of us. Assyrian Cafe would like to send out a special invitation to anybody who would like to be part of the Assyrian Cafe team dedicated to bringing you the wonders of the Assyrian Cafe website. New minds mean new ideas and that means an improved Assyrian Cafe which benefits all of us. If you are interested in a position please do not hesitate to contact Assyrian Guy by emailing him at

assyriancafe@gmail.com

LETS ALL DO OUR BIT

I'm not sure if you all know the amount of time and effort goes into keeping this website running, but above all the cost is enormous. Assyrian guy has already donated so much of his money to keeping this website running but now it's our turn to chip in. It would be much appreciated by the team here at Assyrian Cafe for any donation, as much as can be spared will go a long way in keeping this website running. If you would like to donate any amount of money to keeping the website running please email Assyrian Guy at assyriancafe@gmail.com

BOOK COLLECTION

All you university students have come to understand the cost in purchasing books for university. The Assyrian Cafe team is proposing an easy solution to this problem. A book collection will be set up so people could borrow text books for specific courses which consequently minimize the cost of university by a lot. If you have some university books you have lying around, please do not hesitate to contact Assyrian Guy to make some sort of arrangement. Email him at

CHICAGO'S TUTORING CENTRE

New ideas have been put forward to open up a tutoring centre next summer for the educationally driven people of Chicago. The centre will be opened up to lend a helping brain to students who just need that extra help in achieving their personal best. This can only be possible with the help of tutors. So I would like to send out an invitation to who ever is interested in the education of these young minds to step forward and email Assyrian Guy at assyriancafe@gmail.com

SAY CHEESE

As you all know, Assyrian Cafe has a section of the website dedicated to photos of Cafe users. On behalf of the Assyrian Cafe team I would like to send out an invitation to who ever would like to post photos on our website to submit their photos to assyriancafe@gmail.com

EDUCATION IS THE KEY

As I have mentioned in previous newsletters, Assyrian Cafe does have a section dedicated to the education of young minds. This is to mean that a section of the website contains articles on a variety of subjects to educate and/or enlighten the minds of others. On behalf of the Assyrian Cafe team I would like to encourage users to email articles of any subject they wish to Assyrian Guy and necessary arrangements will be made to post it in our article section. To do so please email Assyrian Guy at assyriancafe@gmail.com

THANK YOU!

Special thanks go out to our web designer, newsletter writer, admins, moderators, members and guests at Assyrian Cafe
